Please note: Should your application result in a bursary grant, you will receive paperwork that will require you to formally accept the Bursary. Enclosed at that time will be a second signature page requiring “wet signatures” (a traditional, physical signature made by hand with a pen on a paper document) from all parties. Your Acceptance paperwork must be mailed to the Stedman Foundation office by the date prescribed in the notice of acceptance.

The Foundation reserves the right to alter the amount of the bursary if there are significant changes in a student’s information since the original application was completed.
